Redwood City 2020 Tuesday Tidbits

Inside this edition:
Welcoming new Shinnyo Community Impact Fellow

Welcoming new Shinnyo Community Impact Fellow, Michael Solorio

Redwood City 2020 is pleased to welcome Michael Solorio as Redwood City 2020's Shinnyo Community Impact Fellow. Michael Solorio brings a wealth of community-based knowledge and we are fortunate to welcome him on our team to lead Redwood City Together, Redwood City 2020's welcoming initiative.

Michael Solorio recently graduated from Stanford University with a degree in Materials Science and Engineering. He is very passionate to empower local community members and provide opportunities for underserved populations. He has worked as a Safety Coordinator to provide countermeasures against ICE for El/La Para TransLatinas, a transgender Latinx Community Center in San Francisco. He has also worked for Mujeres Migrantes en Progreso to lead a seminar series about healthy living and community resources for immigrant women in Santa Ana, California. Michael also brings a passion for building bridges across groups of different ethnicities, languages, incomes and lifestyles.

Michael is excited to be a part of the Redwood City 2020 team and looks forward to being a reliable community partner as he leads Redwood City Together in this year.
